ACLU Supporter –

I am still in awe by how, throughout the legislative session and beyond, the ACLU of Oregon community showed up. Together, we worked collectively to fight for a more just, equitable, and caring Oregon. Despite the distance, thank you for showing up for us virtually throughout the pandemic by contacting lawmakers, attending virtual events, and writing letters to the editor. I think that it's time for us to gather together in person. I am thrilled to announce and invite you to the TOGETHER Conference.

TOGETHER CONFERENCE

There is no cost to attend, but registration is required.

Saturday, September 21, 9 a.m. – 4 p.m.
Portland State University
University Place Hotel & Conference Center
310 SW Lincoln St.
Portland, OR 97201

During the TOGETHER conference, we will share meals, build relationships, and develop our knowledge and skills to ready our communities for the upcoming work of the journey ahead: navigating the 2024 elections and creating a more just, equitable, and caring Oregon. Visit our website to learn more about the TOGETHER Conference.

Through various discussions and workshops, we will learn about the work and experiences of local community leaders and advocates. We will dive into the ACLU of Oregon's priority issue areas, including protecting LGBTQ+ and reproductive rights, advancing democracy, and re-envisioning community safety. Just as importantly, we will create space for joy and rest by using art and movement as an act of resistance.

As the civil rights leader Reverend Doctor William Barber said, "Do the ACLU." Together, we Act, Challenge, Love, and Unite.

TOGETHER, we are ACLU.

I can't wait to see you there!
